Annual Meeting Of Knox United

Approximately one hundred and fifty members and adherents attended the congregational supper and meeting in Knox United Church Tuesday December 14th. After a fine supper, pictures were shown by Mr. E. T. Wiggins.

At eight o'clock the evening program commenced with the Invocation. Following these the chairman, Rev. C. C. Armstrong welcomed the newcomers to the congregation, and briefly outlined the purpose of the meeting.

Mr. Ken Burns played two fine selections, accompanied by Mrs. C. Leeson.

Miss Gathel Kiersgaard outlined the purpose and activities of the C.O.I.T., telling of the large and active group of gifts. Attention was called to the C.O.I.T. Vesper service to be held on December 12th.

Mrs. Wm. MacArthur told of the Sunday School, and especially stressed the value of a close relationship between the Christian home and the Sunday School, and of how parents can help explain to their children the purpose and activities of the Sunday School.

Mr. Reid Clarke, chairman of the Missionary and Maintenance Committee, clearly indicated the value of our "larger Sunday school" which is made up of the whole church at home and abroad. Several illustrations of Mission Projects were given, and the need for regular support of this work was clearly indicated.

Mr. Bruce Parker, Clerk of Session, told what the church means as a place of fellowship, worship and inspiration in daily living. This was followed by a vocal solo by Geo. Thuring, "Bless This House." He was accompanied by Mrs. Thuring.

The financial aspect of church work was outlined by Mr. A. Allen, who stressed the need of systematic pledging. Rev. Mr. Armstrong spoke briefly on proportionate giving, and introduced Mr. Bob Hood, of West Calgary United Church, who gave a very challenging and helpful interpretation of the principle of tithing in the church.

The meeting closed with the singing of a hymn and the benediction pronounced by the minister. The program was a new venture in a special type of congregational meeting, and the response to it was most encouraging.

FALLEN TIMBER

(From Our Own Correspondent)

A very successful bazaar and dance was held at the school Friday evening. We now have enough for electricity for the school and hope to have it turned on in time for the school Christmas party.

We are pleased to see that Mrs. H. Morrison, Mr. W. Haus, Mr. H. Howton, Mr. C. B. Moore, Mrs. Goehoe Sr. and Judy Moore are all feeling so much better.

Master Brian Moore has been confined to his home with measles.

Miss Margaret Money was a weekend visitor at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. Money.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Roberts, Charles, Bonnie and the twins of Fort McMurray, were visitors in the district recently.

Several of the men from the district are attending the "first aid school" being held in Sundre for two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McGaffin of Didsbury were visitors in the district Sunday.

A wedding dance is to be held Dec. 17 in the Fallen Timber school for the newly-weds, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Berscht. Everyone is welcome.

It has been decided to hold the Sunday school Christmas program on Dec. 26 at 7:30 p.m. Everyone is welcome to bring gifts for all the children attending.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe McGaffin are holding "open house" Sunday afternoon and evening, Dec. 19, the occasion being their 25th wedding anniversary.

Electricity has been turned on in the district and everyone is really enjoying it.

As the Municipal District of Mountain View No. 49 is a Brucellosis Restricted area and due to the regulations pertaining thereto, the following is the policy concerning the sale of cattle at sales yards.

1. All heifer calves ages 4-10 months will be vaccinated at the sale premises if not vaccinated by the seller at his farm.

2. All females, if not blood tested prior to the sale, will be blood-tested before leaving the sale's premises, except a Spayed heifer; but those vaccinated as calves and not over 30 months old.

3. The auctioneer will announce whether female cattle are vaccinated or previously tested.

4. No cattle branded with a "B", which indicates a positive reaction to Bangs test, will be accepted.

5. The cost of vaccination or testing at the sale's premises will be deducted from the seller's account.

6. Anyone buying a female which is tested on the sale's premises is required by this regulation to keep it separate from his other cattle until the results of the test are forwarded to him by the veterinarian.

Thank you cards were read from Mrs. W. D. Archer, Mrs. Bob Cooker and a thank you to Mrs. Booker for a donation of $10 to the W.I.

Roll call was answered with a wash cloth for Korea. Twelve members and 14 visitors were present. A pair of towels had been bought with the wash cloth.

The large shipment of blankets had been distributed and the free blankets were to be sold. Mrs. Hunter and Mrs. Gebers each received one.

Mrs. L. Hunter was the lucky winner of the coffee spoons donated by Mac's Hardware. A plant was purchased and sent to Mrs. Gooding.

Christmas cards were brought to fill three Christmas boxes.

Mrs. Hogg was present and spoke on organizing a girls' club. Jeanette Hunter volunteered to be supervisor and for the first few months to have a different assistant each month.

The president gave a report on the year's work and the topics studied. Mrs. Hunter reported on sick committee work.

Not one member held a perfect attendance record. Mrs. Snyder and Mrs. Gebers had both missed just one meeting. Meeting places for 1955 were arranged.

Mrs. Stiles gave her usual Christmas story, a diary of her most remembered Christmas's, some brought tears of laughter, others tears, as she visualized her bygone Yuletides.

Christmas gifts were exchanged. The draw netted $2.50 and was won by Elaine Pratt.

SHOE SHOP ENTERED BY THIEVES AT WEEKEND

Sometime during the weekend thieves forced their way through a rear window of the premises of Clarence's Shoe Shop and escaped with the cash register, containing $17.85 and an undetermined number of shoes and overhauls.

WEST NOTES

Mr. and Mrs. J. Bagshaw spent Friday evening with Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Hogg.

EARLY COPY NEXT WEEK... PLEASE !!!

At this season of the year the post office is one of the busier places in town and due to past experience we would ask that correspondents and others wishing news to be published in our edition of Wednesday, Dec. 22, forward their copy as soon as possible so as not to take the chance of late delivery. If convenient, it may be a good idea to drop it into the Pioneer office direct.

As has been the custom for many years before the present owner took over, there will be no issue of the Pioneer between Christmas and New Year.

December Meeting Of Zella W.I.

Mrs. A. Waldruff was hostess on Thursday, Dec. 9, to nine members and two visitors for the annual meeting of Zella W.I.

Mrs. Oardula Hees and her husband pose happily in the market they own in Long Beach, Calif., after Mrs. Hees announced that she has turned down her share in an estate in L.A. worth to her by her grand-nephew. LEDUC CHANGED HISTORY

It's an old story now, of course, but still one of the biggest in Canadian history.

Less than 10 years ago all but a trickle of the oil used in Canada had to be imported. Not only that, but most of it had to be paid for in what were then scarce and hard U.S. dollars.

Then came Leduc and the discovery of gas and oil in many other sections of Alberta. Recent reports re the progress of the industry have been big news the past few days.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE
"Is the Universe, Including Man, Evolved by Atomic Force?" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon to be read at Christian Science services Sunday. Man's God-given dominion over materialism, including the so-called laws of chance and misfortune, is brought out in the readings from the Bible, among which is the account of Paul's restoration of Eutychus, the young man who "fell down from the third loft, and was taken up dead" (Acts 20).
Correlative passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy include the following (424:5): "Accidents are unknown to God, or immortal Mind, and we must leave the mortal basis of belief and unite with the one Mind, in order to change the notion of chance to the proper sense of God's unerring direction and thus bring out harmony."

LOCAL

 The function of the Department of Municipal Affairs is the general supervision of local government in Alberta. Dealing chiefly with assessments and taxation, the Department assists municipal officials in their business management problems.

Each of Alberta's cities, towns and villages, has its own local government. Rural areas are divided into municipal districts and counties and these too have their own councils charged with carrying out well-defined responsibilities.

Improvement Districts comprise the outlying lands in the Province which are not sufficiently well developed to assume the responsibilities of local government. As population increases, improvement districts become municipal districts with their own elected councils, but until they reach this stage of development their affairs are administered directly by the Department of Municipal Affairs.

The Special Areas in south-eastern Alberta is another section of the Province which does not have local self-government. These areas are administered by a Special Areas Board directly responsible to the Department of Municipal Affairs. Headquarters of the Board is at Hanna.

In 1950, The County Act became law under which the council of a municipal district or the board of the school division may request that their district be established as a county. In a county, a single local government, called a county council, combines the work formerly done by the municipal council and the local school board. One council instead of two, and one budget instead of two, means greater economy, more efficient administration and improved and expanded services can then be rendered.

Many requests for the change have been received and by 1951 five counties have been established in widely separated and different parts of Alberta. All five are operating efficiently and there is little doubt that further counties will be established in the Province.

The Department of Municipal Affairs is divided into several branches. One of these, the Assessment Branch, sets up uniform standards of assessments throughout the Province, and deals with adjustments or revisions of various assessments where these are required. Upon request, the branch will undertake the assessment of any town, village or hamlet and will absorb fifty per cent of the cost.

The Municipal Inspection Branch conducts an annual inspection of the books and records of all towns, villages and municipal districts, in Alberta, paying particular attention to their by-laws, budgets and methods of finance. This branch also looks after any changes in status or boundaries.

The Field Service Branch assesses all lands in improvement districts, collects a considerable amount of taxes and values various parcels of land for other government purposes.

The Tax Recovery Branch supervises the enforcement of the Tax Recovery Act, under which land may be sold for unpaid taxes.

The Town and Rural Planning Branch is the executive arm of the Provincial Planning Advisory Board. It provides technical assistance on town planning wherever this service is requested. No charge is made for expert advice on such matters as road intersections, general plans and zoning by-laws for a 30-year development program. This branch is responsible for the planning of Drayton Valley, Alberta's youngest township.

The Minister of Municipal Affairs is also the minister in charge of Civil Defence for the Province and the Provincial Secretary.

Notes From D.A.

By HOWARD J. FULCHER

Barley is an important crop in our farming program but does not get the attention it should. The first step in successfully producing good barley is good seed. There are two types of barley, malting and feed. The former type is used for feed in many cases. Feed Barley varieties will not malt but are good yielders, generally five to 10 bushels per acre better than the malting varieties.

As seed is quite limited this year and would produce enough barley for the needs in 1956, with little cash outlay now.

The recommended malting variety for this area is Olli, a very early, rough awned, weak strawed, yielding heavy variety. Olli as well as a malting barley makes good feed and is excellent, due to its earliness, in wild out control plans. Other malting barleys are Montcalm, a smooth awned, heavy yielding, late maturing variety; and O.A.C. 21, a medium early variety but subject to goose necking and loss of heads in the field.

The recommended feed barleys are Vantage and Newall; the former a medium early, strong strawed, and smooth awned good yielding barley. Newall is medium early, smooth awned, good yielding variety, but a little weaker in straw and subject to loose smut.

Two new feed barleys are Wolfe and Gateway, the former a fairly early, strong strawed variety, appears to yield very well. Gateway is early maturing, smooth awned and a good yielding variety. It is, however, a little weak in the straw strength and subject to loose smut. Both these new barleys are quite promising but seed supplies are limited.

By selecting the variety which suits your purpose best and seeding a limited amount of land to top quality seed this spring, you can grow the supply of seed you need for 1956.

IT'S YOU

You say the world looks gloomy.
 The skies are grim and gray.
 The night has lost its quiet,
 You fear the coming day.

The world is what you make it.
 The sky is gray and blue,
 Just as your soul may paint it.
 It isn't the world, it's you.

Could Eat This Butter . . .

While hundreds of thousands of consumers have turned to much cheaper margarine, government butter stocks in Canada have soared to a new high. Official holdings now total close to 80 million pounds, enough to supply the whole country for three months.

But not so very long ago we were facing a similar situation with beef. There were fears of an enormous glut. Federal efforts were made to develop new customers, any kind of customers, overseas. We didn't succeed in selling or even giving away much meat in foreign markets to in desperation we decided to ease prices a bit at home and consumption mounted.

Perhaps a little easing in butter prices would have the same happy result, comments The Financial Post. There are thousands of Canadian housewives who would like the taste of butter if they thought they could afford it.

REVENGE!

A scientist invented a serum to bring inanimate objects to life. Secretly he tried it out on the statue of a general in the park.

Sure enough, the general gave a quiver and climbed down from his pedestal. The scientist was overjoyed.

"Tell me, general," he said, "What's the first thing you're going to do in your new life?"

"That's easy!" rasped the general, "I'm going to shoot about two million pigeons!"

Through The Study Window

By REV. C. C. ARMSTRONG

At a congregational meeting in a distant town those present were discussing both financial support and spiritual interest. Some held to the view that church support was declining and that some of this was due to the fact (so they believed) that "the minister should be an example" and was not measuring up in this regard. One of those present suggested that at least in the matter of people's failure to attend church this criticism was hardly justified, for the minister went regularly to church, and that surely one who did this was setting a good example.

The immediate reply to this observation was that "going to church was his job" and therefore should not be counted as an example. It presently appeared that they also considered that doing work with boys and girls, and other young groups was simply fulfilling the routine requirements of a specialized type of work. What they were demanding of him was that he should live up to what they had every right to expect of him, rather than regarding him as an example they were looking upon him as an employee of the church.

Whether or not the minister was an efficient workman is not the main issue here with which I am trying to grapple. The vital concern is this: "In the matter of setting an example, can a minister's example be as influential as that of a layman." In the manner of exemplary living, the Christian layman has a very significant advantage, at least in the eyes of many, over a minister. Regular attendance at church is not something that can be considered "something he is paid to do". Any club meeting held at Madden. He handed out 4-H booklets entitled "First Year Projects." Mr. Ed Kinick talked about the days his daughters were members. Mr. J. Hughes gave a talk on the best time a calf should be taken from a nurse cow.

After the meeting the hostess served a delicious lunch. The next meeting will be held at the home of J. H. Hosegood on the afternoon of Dec. 28 at 2 p.m.

Melvin Institute Regular Meeting

The November meeting of the Melvin W.I. was held at the home of Mrs. Clare Fischer, with 13 members present. A quilt was quilted during the afternoon.

Roll call brought forth many useful baking hints. For the November Home Economics ideas, Mrs. H. Fischer told many ingenious ways of using egg yolks.

Mrs. V. Shields spoke on the monthly motto, "Our patience will achieve more than force."

One of the silver teaspoons donated by Mac's Hardware was drawn for, Mrs. H. Fischer being the lucky one. Another spoon will be raffled at the next meeting.

Preserved peaches were collected to be delivered to the Wood's Christian Home. Quilt pieces were distributed to members and blocks made were to be brought to the December meeting. Also bring a towel or wash cloth for Korea and a 25c gift draw.

REGULAR MEETING OF WEST DIDSBURY Calf CLUB

The West Didsbury Calf Club met on Friday, Dec. 3rd at the home of Mr. C. Larson. All members were present and one new member joined. Larry Gillie presided and Mr. McPhail, district agriculturist, instructed on judging the Hereford cows.

Reports were given as follows: Jimmy Hosegood, "It Doesn't Pay To Fatten Cattle"; Marjorie Bird, "Common diseases and ailments"; Lillian Hosegood, "Selecting a Beef Heifer for Breeding."

Reports for the next meeting were assigned to Lila Blain, Larry Dunphy and Larry Gillie.

Mr. McPhail spoke on the best way to cure warbles and told of the first club meeting held at Madden. He handed out 4-H booklets entitled "First Year Projects." Mr. Ed Kinick talked about the days his daughters were members. Mr. J. Hughes gave a talk on the best time a calf should be taken from a nurse cow.

After the meeting the hostess served a delicious lunch. The next meeting will be held at the home of J. H. Hosegood on the afternoon of Dec. 28 at 2 p.m.

CHOOSING A PROFESSION

"In the end, the guiding principle in choosing a profession is not whether one can become rich and famous in it. The man who hates his work, or is indifferent to it, will never give of his best; he cheats himself, he cheats his employer and in a wider sense, he cheats society his whole life through. However humble the task, if a man is happy in doing, he has found satisfaction in living."

Kit Tip

Even before the turn of the century, polar and other explorers found that boxes of light, non-rusting aluminum gave their precious first-aid equipment more protection from rough usage and tough weather.

Manufacturers took the tip. Today, especially in factories where industrial processes create humid or corrosive conditions, aluminum boxes are used to keep first-aid kits in good shape.

In fact, aluminum is now popular for boxes to hold everything from tools to trout flies. And for countless other containers that must stay clean, bright, free from rust. Aluminum Company of Canada, Ltd. (Alcan).

DISTRICT NEWS

M.V.B.C. NEWS

(From Our Own Correspondent)

Many people are enquiring concerning those who were in the accident near Bergen. Perhaps it would be well to make a statement concerning them here. Wayne Kagey is in the Holy Cross hospital, Calgary, waiting for an operation on his jaw. This will be quite lengthy, but the break will have to be pinned together, and also wired. We understand. He will return to the college immediately after the operation. Alfred Dietz is again on the campus and feels quite well. Clifford Quantz is also back in the class room. Marlene Shuman is still confined to her room, and will soon be able to have the second cast on her limb. We hope this will be of such a nature that she will be able to continue her piano work. It will be some months before Marlene can use her broken member freely. We appreciate the kindness of friends, their understanding and help given these young people.

Groups of students went to Bergen, Cremona, Edmonton, Acadia Valley and McDougall Flats last Sunday. They report good services.

Miss Walsh spent the weekend with her sister on the farm near Madden.

President Taylor spoke in Condon and Gimlet churches last weekend. Several members of the faculty attended the concert put on by the Canadian Nazarene Choir in Red Deer when they rendered Handel's Messiah, a year program that has drawn considerable attention. They were entertained in the home of the director, Mr. Taylor, after the concert.

Mrs. Neil Neufeld and Mrs. Arthur Eoy have been busy in the kitchen while Mrs. Dietz, our regular cook, was recuperating from the slight injuries received in the car accident. We greatly appreciate the good work of these ladies.

Yes, the new cook books edited by the W.M.S. of the United Missionary Church, are really selling. They cost only one dollar and many people are availing themselves of this splendid opportunity to get some for Christmas gifts. You should see them! Mrs. Charles Brado can tell you all about them if you phone her.

Mr. Lusk is enthusiastic about the Didsbury Choral Society, but there are quite a number who have not registered and who are planning to come. The numbers studied this winter are beautiful and comparatively easy to what has been given other winters. There is a fine tenor section, as well as bass and altos, but the sopranos need help. We will be looking for you at least once before Christmas if you can possibly come.

On Friday evening of this week the college will have its annual Christmas party. The students will be on their way home for vacation before the next week ends. More later!

TRAGIC FARM ACCIDENT

AGRICULTURAL SERVICE BOARD NOTES
W. E. Snyder
Field Supervisor

Vaccination of Heifer Calves — in Mountain View is proceeding at a lively pace: 3300 were done during November and the prospects are good to have the job over the entire municipality completed by the year's end or early in January. Good weather, good co-operation and good planning by the township captains have all helped so much to get this big annual job as far along as it is.

There has been little hesitation in a few instances by some cattlemen in complying with the vaccination program. The livestock diseases act is perfectly clear when it states that all heifer calves between the ages of 4 and 8 months SHALL be vaccinated with a Brucella abortus strain 19 vaccine.

The great majority of cattlemen are very happy to have their heifer calves vaccinated because they know full well that those same heifers will within a few years replace their present herd of breeding stock and that these cows that were vaccinated as calves will not be subject to the dreaded Bangs disease.

Beginning on the week of December 27, 1954, a new policy will be inaugurated at both the Olds and Cremona auction sale yards concerning the vaccinating of heifer calves between 4 and 10 months and also the blood testing of all female cattle which were not vaccinated as calves.

In another part of this paper you will find the full text of these new regulations. Please read them over carefully so that you will be fully informed of what to expect beginning the week of December 27th.

ZELLA NEWS NOTES

(From Our Own Correspondent)

Mr. and Mrs. A. Oppen left by train Tuesday evening for Vancouver where they will visit for the next three months at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Alexander.

Co-operation is a wonderful thing, and the following shows just what can be done. On Monday last, 13 men met at the home of A. Waldruff and saved, split and hauled to the community centre a wood supply sufficient to last a good number of years. At the same time the women were busy re-furnishing the school and served dinner for the men.

Mrs. H. Christensen and Mrs. Edward Waldruff were co-hostesses for nine tables of whist at the Zella school Friday, Dec. 10. Mrs. Fred Lucas and John Hansen topped the honors, with consolations going to Joseph Rind and Arthur Waldruff. Door prizes were won by Mrs. A. Worthington and Wilbur Jahnikke. The next card party takes place Friday, Jan. 7, when Mrs. J. Johnston and Mrs. Joe White will be co-hostesses.

On Sunday, Dec. 19, Rev. C. C. Armstrong will be holding his Christmas service at the school at 10 a.m. with a special program arranged.

A few corrections from the issue of The Pioneer two weeks ago: The fruit cake was donated to the W.L. by Mrs. Arthur Worthington, not Mrs. A. Waldruff. The driver of the school bus is Lester Konechuh.

I HAVE TO LIVE WITH MYSELF
I have to live with myself and so I want to be fit for myself to know. I want to be able as days go by Always to look myself straight in the eye:
I don't want to stand with the setting sun
And hate myself for the things I've done.

I want to go out with my head erect
I want to deserve all men's respect;
But here in the struggle for fame and pelf
I want to be able to like myself
I don't want to look at myself and know
That I'm bluster and bluff and empty show.

I never can hide myself from me;
I see what others may never see
I know what others may never know.

I never can fool myself, and so
Whatever happens, I want to be Self-respecting and conscience free.

"We, too, must live with ourselves and so
We want to be fit for ourselves to know."
